Tiffany Arend Campbell has nearly 20 years' experience as a divorce and family law attorney. Clients hire her to handle child custody and visitation rights, division of property, spousal support and alimony, guardianships, premarital, separation and property settlement agreements, and paternity matters. Additionally, Tiffany handles protective orders, such as TROs and final restraining orders, and is experienced in mediation as a dispute resolution alternative.

Tiffany relies on the diversity of Doerner attorneys to handle the complexities of our matrimonial client's needs, working with the business, tax, litigation, securities and estate planning attorneys to achieve the best and most expedient resolution for her clients.

She is also an experienced commercial defense litigator, defending transportation and insurance cases, implementing an Employee Stock Option Plan for an international corporation and drafting appellate briefs in defending trucking accidents. Tiffany has also assisted in the defense of public utility hearings brought before the Oklahoma Corporation Commission.
